

What's working in professional learning?	What's next in professional learning?	What would you like to see more of in education?
What does 'leadership' mean to you?	What interests, informs and influences you?	What are you looking forward to in your work?
What have you started at work but never finished and why?	What are your professional values?	How is your professional learning informed by learners' experience, voice and needs?
Who do you admire in education?	Whose support has made a difference to your work?	What is the most innovative thing you've done at work?
Which educational policy has had the biggest impact on your practice?	What have you read that has stuck with you?	What's the most effective team you have ever been part of?
What experiences in education have changed you?	What does an 'enquiring stance' mean to you in your practice?	When did you last challenge an assumption?

What makes your role worthwhile?	When have you felt trusted at work?	Who do you champion?
What's the most effective professional learning you've ever experienced?	What uplifts you in education?	What new thing have you learned recently?
When did you last learn something well? How did you know?	When has another colleague helped you?	What is your biggest question about learning and teaching at the moment?
Who has influenced you the most?	What would the title of your professional blog be?	What aspects of your professional Standards has had the biggest impact on your practice?
Which educational debates matter to you? Why?	What do you want to know more about?	When did you last take a risk in your work?
Which education expert would you choose to go and listen to and why?	Who champions you?	What makes good relationships for learning?

